Jester Booties By Su Fennern

Jester Booties

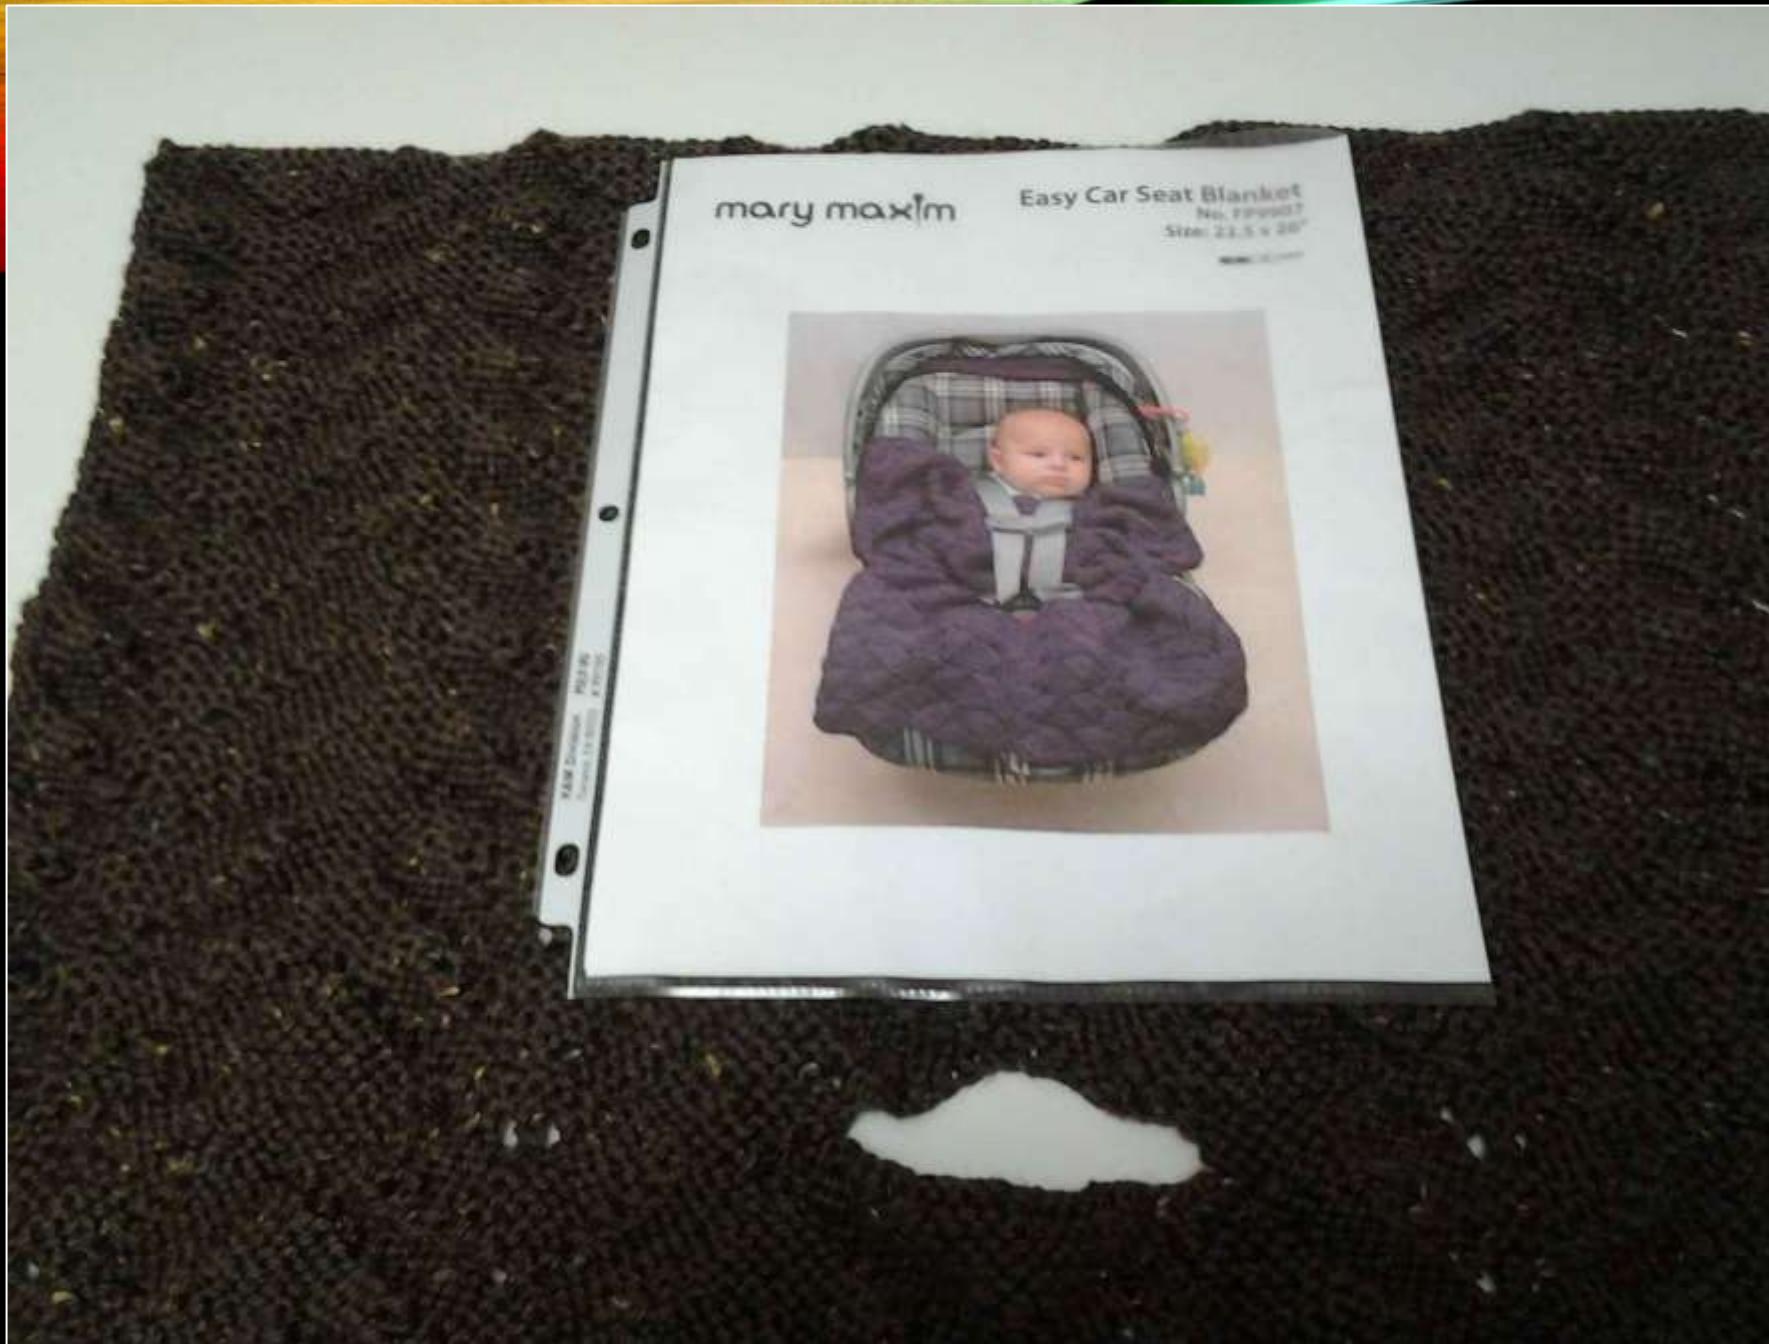

Happy babies jingle while they shake their booties! These look complicated, but don't worry -each bootie is knit in one piece, the bells are attached as you go, and there is minimal seaming and finishing required - you'll only ever be knitting with a maximum of two colours at a time. ☺ This pattern is a great way to use up leftover scraps of yarn. Booties can be knit in four sizes (the smallest two in fingering weight yarn and the biggest two in sport weight yarn). You can even knit bobbles instead of attaching bells if you prefer.

"They touted it as 'perfect for learning the art of brioche knitting' and intermediate skill level. I found it a real challenge and don't recommend trying to use only one color yarn"

Thank you to all the ladies that shared pictures of their knits, themselves, and their families.

We know that a lot of other fantastic, beautiful, and creative knitting took place during the year.

May 2021 be filled with knitting for all of us!
