SEPTEMBER 2024

Fun at the Fair!

Our Knitting Guild was very involved in the Oregon State Fair again this year, with members setting up the displays of knitting, crochet, felted, sewn, and stitched creations. We also had a demonstration table where many of us took turns knitting, greeting visitors, and answering questions. Our table drew many people because of the “emotional support chickens” knit by a couple of members. Our Guild President, Joyce Arthur, was the coordinator of this entire part of the fair. Great job, Joyce! The last day is Labor Day, so you still have time to come by to relish the talents and treasures of Oregon.

The “emotional support chickens” drew visitors to our table.

Another attractive display case highlighted our service project of hats sponsored by the local Assistance League.

Marcia Graciosa won a blue ribbon for her handknit blanket.

August Meeting at the Park

As is our tradition we held our August meeting at Silver Falls State Park. And as usual it was a beautiful sunny day where we dined at the café and then knit outside in the shade of the majestic trees. Next year we will coordinate carpooling to encourage more members to attend.

September 14 Meeting

We are back at our usual place at the Willamette Heritage Center from 10am to noon. Our program is the story of how a tiny yarn shop was saved—bought by a group of 20 women, mostly retired, who turned it into a thriving destination yarn shop. I know, because I was one of those women! A PowerPoint with photos will highlight this story.
