NOVEMBER 2024

October Program

This is just one example of the many exquisite knits shown at our October meeting on "Being a Test Knitter." This was knit by Su Fennern. Her partner presenter, JoEllen Kay, brought a whole suitcase full of fabulous knits. Both women have been "test knitting" patterns for many years for various designers from around the globe.

Also, it was reported that our Guild has donated 256 handknit hats to children kindergarten through high school so far this year. Well done and keep up your amazing knitting. Thanks to Margaret and Sue for bringing us this project for the Assistance League.

Two knitting "helpers": Car trash can that fits into your cup holder holds two small balls of yarn, each one coming out from a different side. Created by Marcia Smith. Yarn ball holder that fits over your wrist so you can stroll, dance, etc. and keep knitting. Shared by Patty Scrubbs.

November 9 Meeting

In addition to electing a secretary and treasurer for 2025-2026, we will see photos and share stories of knitting Emotional Support Chickens. If you have photos of knitted chickens you have given away, send them ASAP to this email. If you have others living in your home, bring them to show. As always, bring other recently finished items for share for "Show and Tell."

Reminder: Our Knitting Guild is hosting a table at the Annual Fiber Guild Sale at the Mill, Nov. 1 and 2. Many of us signed up to sit at our table and invite others to join our Knitting Guild. If you didn't sign up, come by and say "hi" and shop some of the beautiful hand-woven towels and other items that support the Fiber Guild and the Willamette Heritage Center.

No birthdays in November
